

Medical Exam Study Guide

1. List the steps in the primary assessment including the pertinent findings.
2. List the steps in the medical assessment including pertinent findings for each body region.
3. List the organs by the abdominal quadrant in which they are found.
4. Contrast the signs and symptoms of a patient suffering from heat exhaustion and heat stroke and describe the treatment considerations for each.
5. Describe the signs and symptoms of a patient suffering from frostbite including the treatment conditions.
6. Describe the signs and symptoms of a patient suffering from hypothermia and describe the treatment conditions.
7. Describe the signs and symptoms of a patient suffering from a cerebral vascular accident (stroke).
8. Contrast the pathophysiology of a hemorrhagic stroke and an ischemic stroke.
9. Contrast the signs and symptoms of a patient suffering from a stroke and a transient ischemic attack.
10. List the different types of seizures and describe the signs and symptoms associated with each.
11. Describe the signs and symptoms of a patient suffering from syncope including why the signs and symptoms occur.
12. Describe the signs and symptoms of a patient suffering from a migraine.
13. Describe the signs and symptoms of a patient suffering from hypoglycemia including why the signs and symptoms occur.
14. Describe the signs and symptoms of a patient suffering from hyperglycemia.
15. Contrast the signs and symptoms of a patient suffering from high and low blood sugar.
16. Describe the signs and symptoms of a patient suffering from gastrointestinal bleeding including why the signs and symptoms occur.
17. Contrast the signs and symptoms of a gastrointestinal bleed which occurs high in the GI tract and low in the GI tract.
18. Describe the signs and symptoms of a patient suffering from influenza including the treatment considerations.

19. Describe the signs and symptoms of a patient suffering from pneumonia and why the signs and symptoms occur.
20. Describe the signs and symptoms of a patient suffering from meningitis and the treatment considerations.
21. Describe the signs and symptoms of a patient suffering from anemia including why the signs and symptoms occur.
22. Describe the signs and symptoms of a patient suffering from appendicitis including why the signs and symptoms occur.
23. Describe the signs and symptoms of a patient suffering from kidney stones including why the signs and symptoms occur.
24. Describe the signs and symptoms of a patient suffering from anaphylaxis including why the signs and symptoms occur.
25. Describe the treatment for a bee sting.
26. Describe the signs and symptoms of a patient suffering from schizophrenia including treatment considerations.
27. Describe the signs and symptoms of a patient suffering from bipolar disorder including treatment considerations.
28. Describe the signs and symptoms of a patient suffering from agitated delirium including treatment considerations.
29. Describe the signs and symptoms of a patient suffering from a narcotic overdose including treatment considerations.
30. Describe the treatment of a patient exposed to a dry chemical.