

Soft-Tissue Trauma Study Grid

Conditions	Signs & Symptoms	Treatment	Definition/Notes
Contusion
Hematoma
Crush Injury
Penetrating Trauma
Laceration
Avulsion
Impaled Object Injury

Superficial Burn
Partial Thickness Burn
Full Thickness Burn

What are three things to consider when determining the severity of burns?

- 1.
- 2.
- 3.

What is the rule of nines?

What is the rule of palm?

You have an adult male with circumferential burns to both upper and lower legs along with circumferential burns to the left arm. What percentage of body area is burned?

You have a child who has circumferential burns on both lower legs. What is the percentage of body area burned?

Key Terms:

Dermis –

Epidermis –

Occlusive Dressing –

Subcutaneous Layers –

Closed Wounds –

Open Wounds –